Steven C. Harms-Give Place to Wrath

Detective Roger Viceroy, divisional head of the Midwest Region Special Crimes Unit, awakes one morning to a bombing in a wealthy suburb of Milwaukee. As he and his team dive into the investigation, a mysterious clue launches a manhunt with scant other evidence to point them in the right direction.

Karen Dybis-Secret Detroit

Secret Detroit explores this great American city to investigate everything that is odd, unexpected and extraordinary. Detroit is the kind of city you need to see and experience to understand why locals brag about being from the Motor City. Full of stories and tall tales, this book is a must-have for urban explorers, history buffs and travelers of all experience levels.

Thomas F. Daniels & Thomas C. Marsh-Black and White Like You & Me

Tom and Cookie share an extraordinary friendship. They tell their fascinating tale in this dual autobiography. The volume unpacks their personal experiences during a seemingly innocent, then turbulent time in Detroit's past and offers a model for getting beyond our racial differences, not by papering them over, but by engaging them and acknowledging that we have far more in common than we realize.
